

Joseph J. Wambold

PROFILE: 30+ years experience in the Nuclear Power Industry, including design, construction, operations and maintenance, plant decommissioning, accredited training, and financial management. Strengths include organizational development, managing change, project management, business management and communications skills.

CONSULTANT – Electric Power Industry 2/05 - Present

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON COMPANY 9/74 to 1/05
Rosemead, California

Vice President – Nuclear 7/99 to 1/05

Responsibilities included plant operations, maintenance, health physics, chemistry, security, training, emergency preparedness, industrial safety, human resources, and business and financial management for the San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station. The San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station produces electricity that meets the needs of 2 million people, with annual revenues in excess of $500 million, and profits in excess of $100 million.

Manager of Planning and Strategy – Generation Business Unit 5/94 to 7/99

Manager of Business and Finance – Nuclear Department 6/93 to 5/94

Manager of Projects – Nuclear Department 7/86 to 6/93

Manager of Training – San Onofre Nuclear Generation Station 1/85 to 7/86

Maintenance Manager – San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station 9/82 to 1/85

Construction Manager - San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station 5/80 to 9/82

Chief Cost/Schedule Engineer – Generation Business Unit 9/79 to 5/80

Engineering Supervisor – Project Development and Siting 12/78 to 9/79

Engineering Supervisor – Cost and Scheduling 9/74 to 12/78

BECHTEL CORPORATION – Cost Control and Scheduling 8/71 to 8/74
San Francisco, California

EDUCATION

M.S. Industrial Administration (MBA Program) – Purdue University

B.S. Civil Engineering – Purdue University

Professional Engineer, Civil – California